Nation's Super-Spy Made Scene Here

By LEONARD J. PANAGGIO

Allen W. Dulles, one-time head of the Central Intelligence Agency, who died a few weeks ago, and his brother, John Foster Dulles, secretary of state under President Eisenhower, made headlines all over the world during their active careers.

At least one headline was made in Newport when Allen Dulles resigned his post as the top man of the CIA.

The Dulles family left its mark in Rhode Island in another way a long time ago. Back in the middle of the last century, when this little state boasted of having more ritzy resorts in a small area than could be found in any other part of the world, it was the great-grandfather of the two famous brothers who helped make Narragansett Pier internationally known.

In 1848 Joseph Heatly Dulles, a cotton broker, visited the little village of Peace Dale in South Kingstown. He was there on business dealings which brought him face-to-face with Rowland Hazard. Hazard was one of the largest operators of textile mills in that part of the state.

It was during this brief visit that Dulles, a Philadelphian, was shown the magnificent vistas of beaches and rocky shoreline of the Narragansett area. So taken was he with the beauty and the climate that he made arrangements to bring his family to Rhode Island for their summer vacation the next year.

At that time Narragansett was only scratching its eventual potential as a resort. There were a few boarding houses and some cottages set aside for the use of visitors. One was the Hardwin Cottage, and Dulles, according to one account, reserved all the cottages' accommodations for 1849. The family continued to return to Narragansett for at least a dozen seasons. In the meantime, the Dulles family publicized Narragansett to such a degree that within a few years several wealthy and influential Philadelphia families began to visit Narragansett Pier and established one of this country's most famous watering places.

Allen Dulles made several visits to Rhode Island during his career. In 1947 he was the recipient of an honorary degree when he was made a doctor of laws at Brown University.

He was in Newport June 6, 1960, when he addressed 500 civilians, senior reserve officers and the staff and students of the Naval War College. His topic was "Factors Producing the Current World Situation." The talk was given on the opening day of the week-long 12th annual Global Strategy Conference. He was the lunch guest of Vice Adm. Stuart H. Ingersoll, then the college president.

On Sept. 26, 1961, President John F. Kennedy and his family arrived at Quonset Naval Air Station to begin his first vacation sojourn in Newport. The Presidential yacht, Honey Fitz, was waiting at Quonset to transport the President to "Hammersmith Farm," residence of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh D.

Auchincloss, the stepfather, and mother of Mrs. Kennedy.

The next morning presidential press secretary Pierre Salinger called a special press meeting at the Naval War College. On the platform with President Kennedy were John A. McCone, a wealthy West Coast industrialist and former chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, and Allen Dulles. The President announced that Dulles had come to Newport to tender his resignation as head of the CIA. Kennedy then named McCone as his successor. He said the change would become effective Nov. 1.

With this important piece of business accomplished, President Kennedy saw both officials take off in a Marine Corps helicopter for Quonset Point. As soon as the copter was well on its way, the President went to the Naval Base pier where the Honey Fitz was waiting for him. He joined his family and a few friends for a lunch and cruise of Narragansett Bay, and hopefully, to begin an uninterrupted week away from the wearying work of Washington.

TIES WITH BEELZEBUS HIMSELF....

THE LAST YEARS OF HIS LIFE WERE LARDED WITH EVERY POSSIBLE

ADVENTURE, LIKE THE MAGAZINE OF A COWBOY'S COLT LOADED WITH

HIS DETACHED HOUSE ON WASHINGTON'S WISCONSIN AVENUE. PUFFING AT A

DULLES WROTE HIS MEMOIRS AND EDITED "OUTSTANDING AND TRUE SPY STORIES" A BOOK WHICH THE "NEW YORK TIMES" RECOGNIZED AS "AN ANTHOLOGY OF CONTEMPORARY ESPIONAGE." IN MOMENTS OF RELAXATION HE WOULD RE-READ THE NOVELS OF IAN FLEMING ABOUT THE ADVENTURES OF JAMES BOND. NOW HE COULD SIMPLY SAVOR THEM, BUT QUITE RECENTLY HE HAD STUDIED FLEMING FROM A PROFESSIONAL VIEWPOINT, EMPLOYING HIS EXPERTISE ON LABORATORY STUDY OF BOND'S FANTASTIC EQUIPMENT IN ORDER TO SEPARATE THE WHEAT FROM THE CHAFF. (PRECISELY AS A RESULT OF SUCH EXPERIMENTS AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE WAS ARMED WITH A BOND TRICK -- A KNIFE CONCEALED IN THE HEEL OF A BOOT WHICH WAS ACTIVATED BY A HIDDEN SPRING).

DULLES WAS MADE FOR ESPIONAGE. IN THE MOST TORTUOUS LABYRINTHS OF THE SECRET WAR HE FELT LIKE A FISH IN WATER. NEVERTHELESS, HE LEFT THE SCENE LIKE A GAMBLER WHO HAD BEEN TAUGHT A LESSON. AND IT WASN'T THAT HE LACKED TALENT, THAT HIS SKILL AND EXPERIENCE LET HIM DOWN, OR THAT THE SPRING WHICH ACTIVATED THE KNIFE CONCEALED IN THE HEEL OF HIS BOOT SUDDENLY REFUSED TO WORK. THE THING IS THAT THE GAME DULLES WAS PLAYING WAS BY ITS VERY ESSENCE A LOSING GAME -- HE TRIED TO HOLD BACK THE SPRING OF THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE MODERN WORLD, AND THE MORE IT SEEMED TO HIM THAT HE WAS

SUCCESSING IN THIS, THEN THE MORE HEAVILY AND PAINFULLY HE WAS BEATEN BY THIS SPRING, OBEDIENT SIMULTANEOUSLY TO THE LAWS OF PHYSICS AND THE LAWS OF HISTORY, WHICH WAS TORN FROM HIS TENACIOUS HANDS.

THE WORLD KNOWS TWO DULLES BROTHERS, THE ELDER 7- JOHN FOSTER, AND THE YOUNGER -- ALLEN WELSH. IN POLITICS THE BROTHERS ACTED LIKE SIAMESE TWINS. THE ELDER'S "COLD WAR" AND THE YOUNGER'S "SECRET WAR" WERE WAGED AGAINST ONE AND THE SAME PRINCIPLE OBJECTIVE -- COMMUNISM. THIS UNIQUE TANDER DOMINATED AMERICAN POLITICAL LIFE FOR ALMOST A WHOLE DECADE. THE ELDER TRIED TO TALK WITH US IN A LANGUAGE OF STRENGTH, AND THE YOUNGER -- IN THE LANGUAGE OF ESPIONAGE. THE ELDER OPENLY AIMED ATOM BOMBS AT OUR BREASTS, AND THE YOUNGER'S AIM WAS TO STEALTHILY PLANT A POISONED DAGGER IN OUR BACKS. THE ELDER'S RELIGIOUS FANATICISM AND THE YOUNGER'S MACHIAVELLIAN GODLESSNESS WERE EQUALLY STEEPED IN HATRED FOR PROGRESS, ON WHOSE HEAD THEY CALLED DOWN THE FURIES OF "MASSIVE RETALIATION." BUT THE HISTORICAL RETALIATION OVERTOOK THEM. THE VERY ADVOCATES AND CHAMPIONS OF "ROLLING BACK COMMUNISM" PROVED TO BE OUTCASTS FROM U.S. POLITICAL LIFE.

OF APPROACHING DEATH HAD BEGUN TO CLOUD JOHN FOSTER'S VISION DID
HIS CONSCIOUSNESS BEGIN TO CLEAR. HE HAD TO ADMIT THE FLIMSINESS
OF HIS PHILOSOPHY AND THE FAILURE OF HIS POLICY. ALLEN WELSH DID
NOT AGREE WITH THIS TESTAMENT OF HIS ELDER BROTHER. A BESTIAL HATRED OF COMMUNISM PREVENTED SOBER REASONING EVERY TIME IT WAS NECESSARY TO RISE ABOVE THE ESPIONAGE ROUTINE AND MADE WIDE
SUMMARY EVALUATIONS AND RE-EVALUATIONS. AS A RESULT ALLEN WELSH,
WHO WAS THINKING OF PUTTING AN END TO SOCIALIST CUBA IN SPRING 1961
NINETEEN SIXTYONE, WRUNG HIS OWN NECK. WHEN THE WATERS OF THE BAY OF PIGS CLOSED UP OVER THE DEFEATED INVASION FORCES, IT TURNED OUT THAT THE CAREER OF ALLEN HAD PLUMMETED TO THE DEPTHS WITH THEM.
THE "TITANIC" OF ESPIONAGE WAS UNK. AT THAT TIME PRESIDENT KENNEDY COMPLAINED TO HIS CLOSE CIRCLE, "DULLES IS A LEGENDARY FIGURE AND IT IS HARD TO WORK WITH LEGENDARY FIGURES." SEVEN MONTHS AFTER THE DEFEAT IN THE BAY OF PIGS KENNEDY MADE DULLES THE SCAPEGOAT.
THE PRESIDENT SAID TO THE FAILED SPY, "ACCORDING TO BRITISH LAW
I SHOULD RESIGN, BUT ACCORDING TO OUR LAWS, I'M AFRAID YOU MUST DO SO."

DULLES OBEYED AND APPARENTLY RECEIVED FOR THIS NOT ONLY RETIREMENT
BUT ALSO A CONSOLATORY MEDAL "FOR PROTECTING NATIONAL SECURITY..."

A WHOLE EPOCH IN THE HISTORY OF AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE IS CONNECTED WITH THE NAME OF ALLEN DULLES. HE TRANSFORMED IT INTO A
LEVIATHAN, SO TO SPEAK, NOT ALWAYS ANSWERABLE EVEN TO THE PRESIDENT
AND IN NO WAY ANSWERABLE TO CONGRESS. DULLES, DIRECTOR OF THE CIA,
WOULD NOT TOLERATE OR ALLOW ANYBODY TO INTERFERE IN HIS OWN AFFAIRS. WHEN CONGRESS HAD TRIED TO CREATE A JOINT COMMITTEE TO SUPERVISE THE ACTIVITIES OF THE CIA, DULLES EASILY BURIED THIS STILL-BORN CHILD, SCORNFULLY MINTING THAT CONGRESSMEN SUFFERING FROM CHRONIC VERBAL INCONTINENCE SHOULD NOT BE ENTRUSTED WITH STATE SECRETS, AND THE CONGRESSMEN BORE THIS INSULT.

SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITY, ESPIONAGE, AND SABOTAGE BECAME CONSTANT ATTRIBUTES OF AMERICAN IMPERIALISM LONG AGO, AND A MOST IMPORTANT
COMPONENT OF THE U.S. STATE POLICY. "LOOK FOR A WOMAN," THE FRENCH
CHRONICLERS SAID, TRYING TO FIND THE CONCEALED SPRINGS OF TEMPORAL
AND POLITICAL EVENTS. "LOOK FOR A SPY," ONE COULD SAY CONCERNING
MANY EVENTS RECORDED BY THE SATANIC HAND OF THE CIA. IT HAS UNCEREMONIOUSLY MEDDLED IN THE DOMESTIC AFFAIRS OF OTHER STATES AND

DONE, ESSENTIALLY, WITH ONE, JUST ONE, PRINCIPAL AIM IN MIND --

IF YOU CANNOT LIQUIDATE THE SOCIALIST WORLD, THEN WEAKEN IT.

"THIS IS THE MAIN DANGER WHICH STANDS BEFORE US, THE MAIN DANGER

TO OUR INSTITUTIONS, AND TO ALL THAT IS DEAR TO US!" DULLES WOULD PATHETICALLY EXCLAIM NEARLY EVERY TIME THE CONVERSATION TURNED

TO THE USSR. FOR THE SAKE OF THIS ALLEN DULLES WAS PREPARED TO PLAY WITH FIRE AND OFTEN DID PLAY WITH IT, RISKING THOSE VERY

"INSTITUTIONS" FOR WHICH HE HAD SWORN LOVE ON HIS SPY'S BLADE.

Kennedy Foils CIA Invasion

CPYRIGHT

BREZAFTWITZ

The CIA deals in subversion of foreign countries to benefit the U.S. State Department. The first major CIA operation was plotted over Italian elections in 1948 at an informal gathering of the Brook Club in N.Y. James Forrestal got together with some of America's most prominent financiers, lawyers and businessmen to discuss ways of conducting invisible operations in peacetime.

Under Eisenhower the CIA grew in importance, especially after the successful Guatemala operation. General Charles Cabell worked directly under Allen Dulles to insure air cover for mercenaries who invaded the country disguised as insurgents.

but who had been trained and equipped by the U.S. As the cold war faded, the CIA vanished from the public eye until U-2 demolished the 1960 summit conference. Soon after U-2, the CIA began secretly training Cuban exiles to overthrow the "Castro communista" government of Cuba.

Nixon favored the CIA plan so much that he let Kennedy adopt a more militant anticommunist pose toward "Cuban liberation" than he had. When Kennedy proposed an emigre invasion, Nixon worried that JFK might blow the cover. He sent General Charles Cabell, deputy CIA director, to brief Kennedy on CIA activities.

The briefing took place in-flight between L.A. and San Diego as Kennedy campaigned. JFK was thinking about the next speech. He was not really interested in what General Cabell told him.

Nixon lost the election but the CIA-planned Cuban exile invasion was not cancelled. Kennedy was given no choice in the matter and by the time of his inauguration the exile brigade had nearly completed training. The invasion would be presented to the world as autonomous, whereas it was really a U.S.-armed band of mercenaries. Richard
